That successful Nimrod, W. P. Johnson, and party, have returned from their hunting trip, above Upper Soda, in Linn county.

Thos. McE. Patton returns to-day, from Portland, where he went to place his son Hal, and H. B. Fiske in the Bishop Scott grammar school.

Chas. A. Piper, of this city, has accepted a position as timekeeper for Seales & Dean, the O. P. contractors, and has gone to the front to begin work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes go to Canyonville to-night to visit Major Wm. Manning and wife, who have recently been to the old home of the former, in Tennessee.

The wedding of Ivan B. Humason, well known in Salem, and Miss Harriet K. Jeffrey took place in the Unitarian church at Portland, at 12 o'clock last Wednesday.

J. H. Albert's home became scared yesterday, while standing at the fruit drier, and ran off with the buggy, which collided with a wagon. L. S. Winters stopped the animal down town. Damage, a broken shaft and the horse skinned a little.

On the Oregon Pacific.

Track laying on A. Brink's contract has been suspended for a few days on account of a piece of rock work. This cut is now finished and track-laying will at once be commenced again. The completion of this cut leaves 25 miles of level grading, requiring only the laying of ties and rails to complete the road. The work is being vigorously pushed all along the line.—Albany Herald.

Wonders of no Rain.

L. H. Rogers of Minnesota, who has been making a tour of observation in this valley, came in to-day to look around Salem and its surroundings. He likes the appearance of the country but thinks we have been suffering for rain. On the gravelly ground around the depot it may look so to a stranger. But patches of corn and garden truck on well cultivated soil show no signs of drouth. And one charm about our summer has been the entire absence of anxiety in harvesting the immense crops because no thunder storms, wind storms nor even showers have interfered for a single hour with the work. Now that grain is well out of the way, a moderate rain would be welcome. And it will probably come before long.

Yaquina Fishermen's Trouble.

The Albany Herald says: "A gentleman from Yaquina states that the striking salmou fishermen at Yaquina still hold out for higher wages. They held a meeting Saturday night, and decided not to fish for less than 3 cents per pound for whole fish and 4 cents for dressed fish. The cannery of Baker & Hays has acceded to the demands of the fishermen, and Sunday night 20 boat loads of fine salmon were brought in at 3 cents. The other canneries offer only 25 cents each for silver-side salmon and 50 cents for Chinook. They say they will procure fishermen from abroad and defend their boats with Winchester rifles if necessary, the union fishermen having threatened to put a stop to any fishing by non-union men."

A Rare Treat.

To listen to a good reader is a rare intellectual treat, enjoyed by all, just as a hum-drum reader is a weariness and a bore. When a man is par excellence an elocutionist, and reads from his own narratives, that have gained a world-wide fame, the pleasure is greatly enhanced. This is why Geo. W. Cable draws such immense audiences and rivets attention of the elite and the critical. Doubtless he will do so next Friday at the opera house. Tickets should be secured early.

Prof. C. Morris' Canine Show.

The Prof. and his wonderful troupe of performing dogs, will appear at the opera house to-night. They are pronounced by press and public to be the finest troupe of trained dogs ever seen in this country. Just think of it, 25 educated dogs, that can give a two hour's show, the same as people, except they cannot talk. Don't miss. Admission 50 and 75 cents; children 25 cents. Seats on sale at Patton's book store.

Look at the Mast Head.

Says an exchange: "The Salem Vidette claims to be the only democratic daily in Salem. This is tough on the JOURNAL." Our contemporary should notice that the flag that the JOURNAL flies bears the names of Harrison and Morton. And the only national platform published in full and left standing in these columns is the one passed by the republican party at Chicago, last June.

Flag Raised.

Geo. H. Burnett, president of the Salem republican committee, informed the Statesman that the big Harrison and Morton flag will be duly flung to the breeze at 6 p. m., to-day and that three delegates will be chosen to attend the meeting of the league of republican clubs in Portland on the 19th inst. We suppose it is so.

No Better.

Mrs. John Brooks survived the night but her family and physician scarcely expect that her strength will last through the day. She is a christian lady of long experience, perfectly resigned and longing to "go home and be at rest," as she expresses it.

Snatch Thieves.

At Marion, on Saturday, some thieves are reported to have broken into the Chinese railroad section camp and rifled their boxes. It is not known whether they secured any money or valuables.

Col. T. C. Smith informs some of the papers that the line officers of the 2d regiment O. N. G. will assemble in the armory of Company B, Salem on Thursday 20th, Sept., 1888, for the purpose of electing a lieutenant colonel. Officers may send proxies.

At 6:30 to-night the members of the Salem fire department are to assemble at the Tiger engine house to make one more run with the old Tiger engine before it leaves for Aberdeen, W. T.

Horse Thieves Captured.

All owners of stock, and lovers of good order will be glad to read this from the Albany Herald: "Sheriff Combs, of Crook county, has received word from Jas. Slater, who had gone in search of Rufus Smith and a man named Reed, charged with stealing horses from T. B. James, that he had overtaken them at Siuslaw and had them in the custody of the sheriff of Lane county. Smith is the fellow mentioned in the Herald two weeks ago as having left the county with horses belonging to Mr. James. He will probably be given a term in the penitentiary in which to reflect over his ungrateful act."

A Pointer to Advertisers.

A lady and gentleman from a distant state, who intend staying here a month, accosted a JOURNAL representative on the street to-day and requested information about private boarding houses, complaining that they had purchased and perused a Salem daily paper without being able to find a word on this subject that was quite important to them. After explaining that those who take boarders either want no more custom or have a notion that "it does not pay to advertise," the reporter gave the enquirers the names and location of several good private boarding houses.

The Prohibition Club.

The Salem Prohibition club met last night to transact business and listen to an illustrated lecture by R. H. Riddle, of Walla Walla. It was decided to hold an ice cream festival next Friday night in W. C. T. U. hall. Admission, 15 cents. The club will also be represented at the great party prohibition picnic at Woodburn, October 6th.

SECRETARY.

Our new neighbor, the West Side, says the new Baptist church in that city is rapidly nearing completion. The building will be 37x52 feet square, is built of brick, will be hard finished, containing about 800 yards of plastering. Parker & Ferguson are doing the carpentering, and C. W. Love, of Albany, the brick work and plastering. The large new opera house is also nearing completion. It is being built by L. W. Robertson.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcox, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at Dr. H. W. Cox's."

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at H. W. Cox's drug store. Large bottles $1.

Railroad Commission.

The commissioners met to-day and had a conference with B. Campbell of the O. R. & N. company relative to reductions of freights on their line. They were asked to reduce their desire to writing that it might be submitted and then considered at the meeting next Monday.

Salem Further Advertised.

The Oregonian is to publish an illustrated edition of several towns in this valley, including Salem, as it has done Tacoma and Spokane. The artist is now here sketching various prominent buildings and fine views.

Farrar & Co.

Are shipping out fruit by the car load, but their own store is always attractive with the best varieties. In fruit, vegetables, groceries and provisions they are always in the lead.

County Credit Good.

Marion county warrants draw no money at the office of the treasurer for want of ready cash, but they are readily bought at par at the bank.

LOCAL NOTES.

Go to-night and see the dogs.

The wonderful trained dogs at the opera house to-night.

Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street.

The painting of the exterior of the state house, is progressing well.

A private letter from Roseburg, speaks of diphtheria there, with two deaths resulting.

Dr. Gilbert has been called to Monmouth on professional business. Dr. Wemp remains in the Sanitarium.

We are credibly informed that wheat is commanding a good price all along the railroad. At Roseburg it was quoted at 75 cents yesterday.

K. L. Hibbard, superintendent of the pavilion at the fair grounds, is now camped there and all who desire space should see him forthwith.

The notorious "Big Bertha," known in California as the "Confidence Queen," passed through on the northbound train, going to Portland.

The grist mill of V. Watteer, at the mouth of Pudding river is being enlarged in view of the heavy crop and increased demand for flour.

Wm. Anglin is in from the Capital mine to take out more men and a large pump and more supplies. The work is being vigorously prosecuted.

Mrs. Boehringer, an aged lady, living with her son-in-law, John Walton in East Salem, who has not been expected to recover for some time is quite low.

The 8:33 train from California was loaded with passengers. The sleepers, second class and immigrant cars all being full. This is a common occurrence now.

Before long Salem will have cable cars. But next Friday we will have "Cable" readings in the opera house. Those who know a good thing when they hear it will not miss the occasion.

Yesterday morning's train did not arrive till after 7 p. m., having been thrown from the track, and had several cars smashed, by reason of a broken rail, a few miles south of Red Bluff.

The CAPITAL JOURNAL is in receipt of a "Complimentary" to the Walla Walla Agricultural fair, to be held near that city, beginning October 1st, and continuing during the week. Round trip rates on the O. R. & N. fare one way, N. P., one and one-half rates.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Howard brothers in another column. They have entered the field well equipped to do their work expeditiously and satisfactorily. Their reputation for punctuality and honest work should be a good recommendation to the public. If you have any work in their line give the boys a chance.

Those "dorgs!" Prof. Morris' "dawgs." The Portland News says: "The canine performers climbed ladders, stood on their hind feet, made as good leaps over bars from a spring-board as any acrobat. They waltzed, picked out letters and figures on blocks and finally Fritzle, the star, performed the wonderful feat of looking at a boy's watch in the audience and then going upon the stage and telling the time it indicated by picking out figures on blocks."

That J. B. Tichenor is a rustler in the real estate business, may be taken for granted from his success in making sales. Here are some recent ones: Albert Penick, of Oakland, Cal., bought forty-four acres of fruit land five miles south of Salem, from Gus Frieland, and left on the evening train for his family. Mr. Penick has been traveling around for the past two months in search of a home, but has found nothing that suits him as well as the Willamette valley. He claims that California is too dry for his purpose. Friday J. W. Gilbert bought D. M. Evans' farm on Howell prairie. Mr. Gilbert is from western Tennessee, but has been a resident of Eastern Oregon for the past year. He does not like Eastern Oregon owing to the scarcity of wood and water in most portions of it. Mr. G. is well satisfied with his new home, and will induce others to locate here.

F. J. Catterlin, the photographer opposite the court house in Salem makes a specialty of taking the pictures of babies from one day to three years old, and until the middle of September will take negatives of them free. And he warrants first-class work for older persons.

DIED.

WALKER.—At Seattle, W. T., of consumption, Miss Belle Walker, aged about 16 years, on Friday, September 7th, 1888.

Deceased was a sister of Jessie, John, and Miss Alice Walker, of Derry, Polk county, and was brought to that place for interment in the Burch cemetery, near there, yesterday. She was an estimable young lady and an immense number of mourners followed her remains to the grave.
